Score: 98 Points

3 Dec, 2020 – Ripe black cherries, wild blackberries, blackcurrants, nutmeg, licorice, mahogany, musk and some dried thyme on the nose. It's full-bodied and polished with intense blue and black-fruit flavors, wonderfully balanced with wood, spice and smoky notes. Velvety, integrated tannins. Such focus and precision. From biodynamically grown grapes with Demeter certification. Already stunning and hard to resist now, but better in a couple of years. Drink from 2022.

3 Dec, 2020 – This has an aromatic array of ripe red and black cherries, blackcurrants, blueberries, cloves, cedar, fresh herbs and licorice. It's full-bodied, incredibly smooth and polished with layers of ripe fruit and chocolate, yet with lifting freshness. Fine, silky tannins and a long finish. Lingering chocolate and spices. From biodynamically grown grapes with Demeter certification. Delicious now, but better from 2022.

Score: 95 Points

3 Dec, 2020 – Lots of fresh brambleberries on the nose with freshly turned soil, lavender, herbs and lemon zest. More freshly crushed red and black berries on the palate. Hints of nutmeg and macadamia nuts, too. It's medium-bodied and elegant with soft, silky tannins and a juicy finish. Lightly salty at the end. New wine from here. Amfora produced. Drink or hold.
